

Water filters faucet manufacturer

Long reach faucet and air gap

1. A series of water dispensing faucets for point-of-use potable water filters.
2. Lever depression initiates flow with spring return.
3. Upward action allows continuous flow with manual return.
4. Airgap faucet use with reverse osmosis water filter system where plumbing codes require brine flow to through an air gap.

Long Reach Luxury Premium Faucets

A series of water dispensing faucets for point-of-use potable water filters. Ceramic valve design provides smooth operation. Solid metal body construction provides for superior durability. Lever rotation (90°) initiates flow with manual return. The angle of the handle is adjustable.

Available with AIPGAP option for Reverse Osmosis system uses

Open Relief Faucet

Open Relief faucet Keeps pressure out of filter until water is demanded. Helps prevent housing leaks and failures.

All water filter faucets are Available with Euro style and in chrome white, black, Almond, Bisque, Red Polish brass or brushed nickel.